

TeMoRett

Technology-assisted motor rehabilitation for people with Rett syndrome

The objective of this research project is to develop an interactive, computer-assisted therapy approach that

- improves motor hand function
- enables home-based application
- offers remote, telemedical supervision and
- ensures an enjoyable and engaging experience!

Project consortium

SPONSORED BY THE

More about
TeMoRett

www.temorett.de/en

temorett@hhi.fraunhofer.de

Study participants wanted

We are looking for girls from 4 years and women

- with Rett syndrome,
variant MECP2
- with residence in Germany
- with interest in media

If interested in participating in the study, please contact:

- Study Coordination, SPZ Charité neuropaed-studie@charite.de or
- Rett Syndrom Deutschland e.V. ,
Verein für Forschungsförderung,
Chair: Claudia Petzold
cp@rett-sd.de